

IPT II–Oral English, Form E

Examiner: Of these five animals, name the three that are insects.

Student: Butterfly, ant, and worm.

Examiner: If I describe an animal as carnivorous, what does that mean? Give me an example of a carnivorous animal.

Student: Uh...carnivorous...hhh a wolf

Examiner: Look at this graph. What were the yearly sales in dollars of Company C?

Student: one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars

Examiner: And Company F?

Student: five hundred thousand dollars

Examiner: The opposite of rich is poor. The opposite of maximum is ____?

Student: minimum

Examiner: Listen to this sentence: Mr. Marsh filmed the talent show last night. Say the same sentence, but start with: The talent show...

Student: The talent show that...the guy went to was very boring.